

(f) In the event University terminates this contract without Cause, then Coach agrees to accept liquidated damages as specified in this Section 7(f) in complete satisfaction of and payment in full for all obligations, if any, due and owing by University to Coach. As liquidated damages, University shall pay Coach an amount equal to the sum of the gross monthly salary set forth in Section 2 of this Contract plus the amount of compensation which would have been due Coach under Section 5.a. of the Talent and Personal Services Contract between the parties of even date herewith but for termination of the Contracts which amount shall be payable in equal monthly installments from legally available funds until the date on which the Contract would have expired. Coach shall be responsible for all taxes thereon. University shall withhold all applicable federal and state taxes from the amounts due to Coach under this Section 7(f).

7

The parties have bargained for and agreed to this liquidated damages provision and have agreed that the payment of such liquidated damages shall constitute reasonable and adequate compensation for damages that might ensue as a result of University's termination of this Contract without Cause, including any loss by Coach of any collateral business opportunities or any other benefits, perquisites or income from any other sources or agreements. Said liquidated damages shall not be construed as a penalty.