

HONORS TO A ST. LOUIS CLUB.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—All preparations have been made to give the St. Louis Browns, now the champions of the American Association, a monster reception upon the occasion of their return from their triumphant tour to-morrow night. The New-York and St. Louis League teams, all the amateur teams in the city and adjacent to here, all the local athletic clubs, and thousands of citizens will take part in the parade. The Flambeau Club, of Atchison, Kan., came all the way here to illuminate the parade. The Flambeaux will give an imposing drill of a novel character along the entire route, and all along the line of march they will give an exhibition of fireworks that will be visible all over the city. The parade will be followed by a banquet at Schnaider's Garden.

The New York Times

Published: October 7, 1885

Copyright © The New York Times